No. 19 EAST 16TH STREET, NEW YORK.

Messrs. Frank Giles & Co., of 50-56 Kensington High St., London, W., desire to inform the American public that they have just brought over a choice collection of genuine Old English furniture, selected from their splendid stock, which is one of the best in Europe, including specimens of Chippendale, Sheraton, Queen Anne, Old Dutch Marqueterie, 16th Century Jacobean, Carved Oak, etc.; also, a few specimens of the highest perfection of cabinet art, being reproductions of the finest old models, made by their very best artist-artizans, and of the same grade as their exhibits at the recent Paris Exposition. The whole is now on view at the above address, together with a portion of the largest collection of real Old Holland blue and white Delft ever secured. An inspection will at once show the great difference in prices for the above and those at present asked elsewhere in New York for high class furniture; the importer's profit being entirely saved.
